ACC Hockey Contingency Claim

By Ed Lacey – ACC Hockey Club Captain 2010/11

In January 2011, a bag of hockey goalkeeper kit was left in the store at Harlington on a Wednesday afternoon, for use the following Monday at training, since the goalkeeper concerned was taking public transport back to London. The Harlington ground staff acknowledge receipt of the bag, but by the following Monday, the bag was missing.

The club had assumed the bag would have been moved by the cleaners or put somewhere different as they are big, bulky and (very) smelly, and that the bag would turn up in due course. The club was able to manage for the remainder of the season as one of the goalkeepers this season has used his own personal kit, leaving the club with some spare, but next season there will be a shortage, and so the lost kit will need to be replaced over the summer. The club has repeatedly looked for the kit everywhere we could think it could feasibly have ended up, but it has not been found.

The club usually applies to the Harlington Trust for the purchase of new goalkeeper kit, but the terms of application do not permit applications to replace kit which has been lost. The replacement cost of the kit is approximately £1400, with a full breakdown given below. An educational discount of approximately 10-15% has been obtained from Barrington Sports in the past, but this only applies to some items, so the exact cost cannot be given to the committee at present. We would ask that the claim be approved in principle, to a value not to exceed £1400, and the club to return any surplus money once the replacement kit has been purchased, with the purchase being overseen by the DPFS and/or ACC Treasurer as appropriate. The kit specified below is exactly the same as that which has been lost.

The college/union insurance excess is £10,000, and the club believes the contingency funds are put in place to mitigate the risk of accepting such a high insurance excess.

Matters for Decision

To approve or reject the contingency claim for no more than £1400 to replace a bag of lost goalkeeper kit.
