

Imperial College Union
Living Out
A paper by the President and President-elect

Background

In accordance with the Sabbatical Accommodation Policy passed by Council, officers who wish to live out of halls must ask permission from Council.

'1. Imperial College Union strongly supports the use of rooms in halls of residence by senior officers of the Union as it is vital to maintaining the connection between officers and the student body, and allowing officers to work effectively for the Union.'

The Deputy President (Finance & Services)-elect and Felix Editor-elect have asked to live out, we are presenting this paper on their behalf.

Decisions Required:

1. To allow the DPFS-elect, Michael Foster to live out;
2. To allow the Felix Editor-elect, Matthew Colvin to live out.
