

New Projects Committee Election

A note by the Deputy President (Clubs and Societies) Yas Edwards

Introduction

The New Projects Committee was formed to decide whether proposed projects fitted with the aims and objectives of the Union and was there to assess the sustainability of the project.

The New Projects Committee has 3 members: all taken from the Clubs, Societies & Projects Board. One member must be the CAG chair; one member must be the RAG chair. The meetings occur three times a term and committee is also allocated a budget from the CSBP contingency as start-up grants for the new projects.

Decisions required:

1. Elect 1 person to the New Projects Committee
2. Elect 1 reserve for the New Projects Committee
