Imperial College Union is committed to ensuring that procedures are in place to identify hazards, assess risk and set objectives to improve the management of health, safety and welfare.

Imperial College Union acknowledges its duty to ensure that all relevant legislation regarding health, safety and welfare is adhered to and that resources are made available to ensure health, safety and welfare.

Imperial College Union is committed to developing a positive safety culture, based on the involvement of staff and volunteers in health and safety management. Imperial College Union will therefore use consultative forums and mechanisms to involve staff and volunteers in health and safety management, and will endeavour to provide relevant training to all staff and students.

Imperial College Union commits to reviewing this policy at least every 3 years, or as and when necessary, with approval for the policy to take place at the Board of Trustees.

2. Introduction

The Health and Safety at Work Act (1974) requires employers to evaluate and control risks, to which employees and others may be exposed. This includes potential risks from hazards present in the physical environment that may cause a person to slip, trip or fall.

This policy will outline how that requirement is met and managed within Imperial College Union.

3. Responsibilities

Board of Trustees

The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 places a statutory duty on organisations to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the safety, health and welfare of its employees at work and other people who may be affected by their activities, e.g., membership, volunteers, members of the public.

The Board of Trustees, as the governing body of the Union, has overall and final responsibility for Health and Safety matters within the Union and for ensuring that Health and Safety legislation is complied with.

The Managing Director

The Managing Director has delegated responsibility for the implementation, monitoring and review of the Health and Safety Policy and associated policies. As required by the 'Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1993' the Managing Director is named as the 'competent person' who will ensure compliance with Health and Safety. In particular the MD is responsible for:

- Keeping under review this Health and Safety Policy and the Health and Safety performance of the Union.

Departmental Heads and Line Managers

Health and Safety is a delegated line management responsibility requiring managers to undertake operational Health and Safety duties identified in this Policy and individual policies and procedures associated with Health and Safety. All Departmental Heads will be trained in relevant Health & Safety courses (i.e., Risk Assessment, COSHH) and where appropriate (IOSH, NEBOSH) to ensure areas/ teams are managed safely.

Departmental Heads and Line Managers are responsible for:

- Ensuring that departmental activities are conducted in accordance with Union policy, legislative, and other formal standards and that those hazards having the potential to cause harm are risk assessed and identified controls are implemented.
- Ensuring that employees receive sufficient information, training and supervision on Health and Safety matters.
- Producing safe systems of work and the means for complying with this Policy and other individual policies and procedures associated with Health and Safety.
- Where necessary, organising supervision to control the working environment and the maintenance of safe standards.
- Investigating accidents, or near misses, to establish causes and prevent recurrence.

- Identifying and monitoring the adequacy of the specific Health and Safety responsibilities of staff and students.
- Reviewing the above arrangements at regular intervals, making adjustments as necessary.

Individual Members of Staff, Volunteers, Students and Visitors

Individual members of staff, students and visitors have a legal duty to co-operate and comply at all times with the Health and Safety information, instruction and training provided. They must bring to the attention of their line manager or duty manager, without delay, any hazards identified, or improvements identified as necessary. If a hazard is seen, it should be removed or dealt with as soon as possible if it is safe to do so. It should also be reported using the Unions incident reporting system as a matter of priority.

Individual members of staff and students have a duty to take reasonable care for the Health and Safety of themselves and for other persons whom their actions or omissions may affect. Specifically, no person shall intentionally or recklessly interfere with or misuse anything provided in the interests of health, safety or welfare. Serious breaches of the Health and Safety Policy (e.g., misusing equipment, deliberately putting someone else's safety in danger) will be dealt with through the Union's Disciplinary Procedure.

Health and Safety matters may also be raised by any employee at 1-2-1 meetings, team meetings and at Town Hall meetings, which occur regularly.

Operational Health and Safety Committee

The Operational Health and Safety Committee will meet at least once per term, although additional meetings may be called by the Managing Director, Officer Trustees, or the Board of Trustees should the need arise. Membership of the committee will be determined by the Managing Director.

The Committee will have the following terms of reference:

- To maintain and review the measures necessary to ensure the Health and Safety of Union employees, students and others engaged in legitimate activities on its premises.
- To set and review H&S performance and objectives to improve H&S management and maintain a positive H&S culture.

In addition to the Operational Health and Safety Committee, the Board of Trustees may from time to time determine the need for a sub group of the Board to take on specific governance oversight of the Union's Health and Safety activity to ensure sufficient scrutiny and consideration is given to this area of work.
